

Pertinent Paragraphs

Neon Signs are not the only developments in Lemon Grove, despite the fact that we can hardly keep count of them. Lindley's Pharmacy is now claiming the title, having a sign in their corner that overshadows George Casteel's new Real Estate sign in the opposite corner.

If possible, rumors are travelling even faster than news and everybody is still watching George's corner for the next development.

A few weeks ago Lemon Grove had no dentist. Now we have two Dental offices.

Not only professional services, but all forms of new businesses have been added to the Lemon Grove business section these past two months, and the opening of the First Bank will only be the real beginning of the business development.

Rumors are also going the rounds about a change of ownership of the Lemon Grove Review. All we can say is that a change in the publication of the Lemon Grove Review is as inevitable as the other changes that take place all around us.

Lemon Grove decided, like any other "Coming" Community to have their own newspaper and this paper is the Lemon Grove Review. When the people of Lemon Grove decided to cease to be suburbanites the outcome was not in doubt.

A "Trade-In-Lemon Grove" campaign can only be based on the newspaper printed and published in Lemon Grove. As long as we listen to those who benefit by disunity in Lemon Grove we are working against our own interests.

Let us co-operate and work united for Lemon Grove institutions. May we paraphrase: "Those who sow something different, will reap what they sow."

Invest In Lemon Grove

The Lemon Grove Business Community is growing faster and faster. The latest addition to the business section is the opening of the new offices of Messrs. Packer and Bassett, Building Contractors, and Mr. A. H. Harwell, Insurance.

The new building erected by Messrs. Packer and Bassett for their offices and the Insurance office is a credit to Lemon Grove's business section and designed and built by the owners is a sample of the fine work they are doing.

All three newcomers to Lemon Grove have been in business in San Diego county for the past fifteen years. They have made a success in their own line of business and gained valuable experience.

Looking for a permanent location for their business and home they decided to invest in Lemon Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Packer have one daughter, Mrs. James L. Beebe, living in Lemon Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Bassett have two sons, Jerry, a junior at Grossmont High School and Don, attending Lemon Grove Elementary School.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Harwell have one daughter, Jacqueline and one son Dillard, who is attending Grossmont High School.

Second Annual Cub Scout Jalopy Derby Acclaimed Best Yet

Topping even the huge success scored a year ago when the Cub Scout Jalopy Derby first originated, the second annual derby last Saturday and Sunday was acclaimed best yet by all who viewed the thrilling event.

Twenty-six little cars built by

Cub Scouts in Den 8 and sponsored by Lemon Grove merchants lined up for final inspection in front of the Grove Theatre last Saturday afternoon where Harry Deitrich and Hans Ahrensberg, Cub masters, inspected them for rule infractions. After the inspection, the little drivers were guests of John A. van Gilse at the Grove Theatre.

On Sunday morning the little cars were brought to Glenco Hill, in Monterey Heights for trial spins. At 1:30 the actual competition started and it was a nip and tuck affair all day with the crowd of more than one-thousand people getting a real kick out of the proceedings. After the trials were completed, Ronnie Svalstad driving car number 19 sponsored by the H. A. Anderson Chevron Service Station and George Tsongas driving car number 16 sponsored by Lemon Grove Barber Shop were tied for first place. In the following tied for fourth place:

Number 1, Donnelly Plumbing, Jack Rattell; Number 24, Ranch Market, John Elkins; number 13, Broadway Auto Supply, Steve McClintock; number 22 Hill's Jewelry, Corky Davies; Number 2, Avalon Cafe; Number 8, Lemon Grove Supply; Number 10, Monell's Market, Bobby Simpson; Number 12, Grove Radio and Sugar Plum, Raymond Rattell.

After the Cubs completed their races, the crowd giggled as the sponsors crowded and squeeze themselves into the little cars for "The Sponsors Booby Prize". After many crackups including extra good ones by Sheriff Rigley and Johnny Hill; George Mack was declared the winner. Runnerup to Mack included such sponsors as Bob Schnick of the Lemon Grove rebuild, Harry Holiday and Bob Johnson of the Auto rebuild, John A. van Gilse of the Grove Theatre, Carl Polzin of the Barber Shop, John Hill of Hill's Jewelry, Sheriff Rigley and others.

As was the case last year, a banquet for the express purpose of awarding prizes will be held by Den mothers soon after the close of school next month.

20 ENSEMBLES AND A SARONG FOR MISS LAMOUR

That sarong she made famous still is haunting Dorothy Lamour. Currently, Sunday, Monday, starred with Don Ameche at the Grove Theatre in "Slightly French," gay new Columbia comedy with music of a Brooklyn-born Irish girl who borrows a French accent and takes over Hollywood. Dorothy has some 20 changes of costume, including gowns, suits, evening dresses, bathing suits, shirtwaists, robes; pyjamas and the newest in coats and hats, all designed by Columbia stylist Jean Louis.

She also has a sarong, spangled with diamonds and gold sequins, 40,000 of them. Miss Lamour, whose repudiation of the sarong as a costume has been both loud and determined, elected to wear the Jean Louis creation for two reasons: (1) on her it looked good, and (2) it wasn't really a sarong. In checking on the matter, Jean Louis discoverer that Miss Lamour never had worn a true sarong in all of her pictures. A Malayan garment, the sarong is sewed top and bottom and looks like nothing in particular. What Miss Lamour has been wearing all these years has been a Tahitian parou, in case you didn't notice! Second feature is "The Plunderers" in color, starring Rod Cameron and Ilona Massey.

WHAT TO BUY IN A TOWEL

Look for strength, absorption, color, and size in a bath towel, suggests Home Demonstration Agent Mrs. Dalphine D. Wilson of the University of California Agricultural Extension Service. Style is the last thing to consider since a good towel will outlast any current changes in the style trends.

The strength and durability of a bath towel depend upon the construction of the background. The absorption depends upon the height and amount of the pile, which increases the surface area. Pile loops are separated by filling threads. In the poorest towels, one thread is used between rows of pile. The quality of a towel increases with each added filling thread between pile rows until six, the highest number has been reached. Too few filling yarns make a weak background and will pull apart.

The strength of the background in a towel depends upon the quality of the yarn and the method of weaving. Either single or double ply yarn may be used. The double ply yarns are twice as strong as the single, but their strength also depends on the size of the strand and the amount of twist put in the spinning. However, too much twist will make the towel less absorbent.

Mrs. Wilson says to keep the following points in mind when buying towels:

1. When purchasing towels at a special sale, examine the size to find out if the towel has all the desired qualities, but is woven "special size" for special sale purposes.

2. Examine the pile or length of loop, type of yarn and amount of twist.

3. Examine the background to see if there are enough filling threads to hold the pile firmly.

OUR BEST SUMMER PASTURE

Sudan grass is California's best summer growing pasture and hay crop. It has no bloat hazard. Usually about 150,000 acres of Sudan grass is grown annually in this state. Most of it is under irrigation, but it can be grown dryland.

F. W. Dorman, Assistant Farm Advisor of the University of California Agricultural Extension Service said today that San Diego County dairy and livestock producers can grow four to eight tons of Sudan grass hay on one acre of good irrigated soil. In some sections production has been as high as 12 tons.

Sudan grass planted now for pasture should be ready to graze by the latter part of June. It should provide pasturage until frost. Sudan grass can be planted as late as August 1, but this cuts down the production period.

Dorman says the University recommends Sudan 23 because it has proven about 15 per cent more productive than Sweet Sudan. Sweet Sudan does not recover as quickly from grazing or mowing as Sudan 23. Sudan 23 is quite palatable.

Sudan grass grown under irrigation is usually seeded in close rows with grain drill at the rate of 15 to 20 pounds per acre. A firm, well-prepared seed bed with moisture right up to the surface is important. Begin with a good discing, followed promptly by a drag harrow to close the soil over and prevent the loss of soil moisture. Follow with the cultipacker to firm the soil after planting. All operations should immediately follow one another to conserve moisture. In case the surface moisture is lost, the crop may be irrigated up.

Under dryland conditions Sudan may be grown in rows 30 to 36 inches apart, seeded at the rate of four to eight pounds of seed per acre. A sufficient number of holes in the grain drill should be stopped to space the rows as desired. The seed should be planted one inch into the moisture. Keep down the weeds because they consume moisture.

CUB SCOUT NEWS

Pack 8, Lemon Grove Cub Scouts will hold their monthly pack meeting Friday night, May 20, 1949 at 7:30 p.m. in the Congregational Church.

The opening ceremony will be held by Den five followed by announcements, awarding of badges and Den inspections.

This meeting will be of much interest to all Cubbers and parents as the evenings entertainment will cover just what every Cub and Scout always hopes and works for.

Charles Baxter, an Eagle Scout, will take over the evening giving us a talk along with pictures on the International Scout Jamboree held in Moisson, France in 1947. Charles was one of the Scouts representing the United States.

At this time Pack eight is extending an invitation to the Lion's Club as special guests.

As this month's theme for Cubs was farming, there should be several exhibits on display for those who will be interested. So come on Cubs, let's get Mom and Dad out to the meeting and win the parents streamer for your flag.

LADD AS WESTERN HERO

A new kind of Alan Ladd action is in store for fans when Paramount's spectacular Technicolor Western, "Whispering Smith," arrives next Tuesday and Thurs. at the Grove Theatre. Ladd, in the title role makes his debut as a full-fledged, rootin', tootin' Western hero, complete with six-guns, a fast-riding horse and plenty of hair-raising trouble.

"Whispering Smith," based on the novel by Frank H. Spearman, co-stars Ladd with Robert Preston, Brenda Marshall and Donald Crisp. It concerns the activities of a soft-spoken but tough railroad detective whose job it is to crack down on train wreckers and looters. Among the latter, Ladd is shocked to find his best friend. Complicating matters still further is the awkward fact that the friend's wife and Ladd are more in love with each other than they care to admit even to themselves.

The film, Ladd's first in Technicolor, is said to be full of high-powered action of the kind that is right up Alan's alley.

GIRL SCOUTS AND BROWNIE NEWS

Mrs. H. M. Fisher's troop 69 had an election of officers; Darlene Lemke was elected president; Carolyn Oliver Secretary, and Diane Morgan Treasurer. Hostess was Helen Maxon who served root beer and wafers. They discussed the numbers of badges earned and to be completed and decided they will sell "Quaint House" cards to help their treasury.

Mrs. L. O. McIntosh's troop 79 are planting nasturtium seeds. They are sending a food package to a family in Austria. They are going to make plaster of Paris casts on tree leaves they identified on a field trip for their tree badge. They will bring their charts showing they have cared for a dog or a cat for 3 months to complete their dog and cat badge work.

Mrs. L. O. McIntosh wants to thank all parents for their cooperation in the transportation problem caused by the school change which made evening meetings necessary.

Mrs. C. F. Baxters troop 96 will finish their hats this week to be used at the Brownie revel. They will have two more meetings and a picnic this school year.

Mrs. Guy Winton's troop 248 will make hats for the Brownie revel and also work on folk dances.
